

KYA is characterized by 11 treads with 12 rises.

The treads, complete with railing, are 58 cm wide, shaped and staggered, so guaranteeing an excellent compromise between functionality and use of space. The staircase is supplied with a railing on one side.

KYA is adjustable in rise and in direction of rotation, and can assume different configurations.

The direction of rotation, whether clockwise or anti-clockwise, can be decided during the installation.

KYA + RAILING

If you add one or more rises to the staircase you must purchase supplementary CABLE. It comes in stainless steel and measures 11 meters.

The supplementary RAILING protects the second side of the staircase when it is far from the wall. It comprises 6 balusters, cables and handrail, and increases the dimension of the staircase by 4 cm.

The supplementary RISE is always right-handed.

By purchasing one or more supplementary rises, the height of the staircase can reach 329 cm. Supplementary rises consist of structure, tread and one baluster.

If you add one or more rises to the staircase, you must purchase supplementary 120 cm HANDRAIL modules. (Tab.6)

The supplementary BALUSTRADE is necessary to protect the upper floor aperture. It comes in 120 cm modules comprising 5 balusters, cables, handrail and fixings. The balustrade can assume a circular shape.
